

SECTION 5

5.11 CONNECTIONS TO CONDUITS:

All connections to Conduits owned or controlled by Denver Water shall be installed by Denver Water unless otherwise authorized by Denver Water. Denver Water shall provide and install, at cost, all fabricated pipe, tapping saddles, valves, etc., that are necessary to construct the connection. For Denver Water purposes, a conduit is any pipe 24 inches in diameter or larger, carrying raw or potable water.